

Got RISK?

<https://cra.army.mil>

LOSSES

➔ A 1st CAV Division UH-60L contacted the ground during the deceleration portion of a practice night autorotation at Robert Gray AAF, TX on 8 December 2005 at 1950 local. There were no injuries but the aircraft sustained Class C damage.
COST: 1 UH-60L Blackhawk with Class C damage ($20,000 to $200,000)

➔ A 101st Airborne Division UH-60A had smoke emanating from the engine section and landed without further incident in Iraq on 8 December 2005 at 1711 local. There was fire damage to the engine and APU compartments with Class B damage.
COST: 1 UH-60A Blackhawk with Class B damage ($200,000 to $1 million)

➔ A 4th Infantry Division UH-60A landed hard in brown out conditions and subsequently proceeded forward into a metal obstacle in Iraq on 9 December 2005 at 0705 local. All 4 main rotor blades and the nose of the aircraft were damaged.

COST: 1 UH-60A Blackhawk with Class A damage (excess of $1 million)

➔ A USASOC Soldier was injured while conducting unarmed defensive tactics at Ft Campbell, KY on 9 December 2005 at 1430 local. The Soldier was struck on the chin, lost consciousness, and had intracranial hemorrhaging.
COST: 1 Soldier Injured

➔ Two Ft Bliss Soldiers were killed and another injured in a POV collision in El Paso, TX on 10 December 2005 at 0236 local. The two Soldiers that were killed were pulling out of a parking lot when they were broadsided by the other vehicle driven by the injured Soldier. Alcohol was a factor in this accident on the injured Soldier's part.
COST: 2 Soldiers Killed 1 Soldier Injured

➔ An AAFES' PX tent caught fire in Iraq on 11 December 2005 at 0125 local. There was Class B damage to the facility and inventory.
COST: AAFES' Facility and Inventory with Class B damage ($200,000 to $1 million)

➔ A 3rd Infantry Division M1A1 tank impacted and crushed a civilian vehicle in Iraq on 11 December 2005 at 1405 local. All 5 Iraqi nationals in the civilian vehicle were injured, with 2 of them being fatal. The M1A1 tank sustained only minor damage.
COST: 2 Iraqi Nationals Killed 3 Iraqi Nationals Injured 1 M1A1 Abrams Tank with minor damage

➔ A V Corps Artillery Soldier was killed while on guard duty in a tower in Iraq on 12 December 2005 at 0907 local. The Soldier fell from a height of 15 feet.

COST: 1 Soldier Killed

➔ An 82nd Airborne Division RQ-7A had linkage control problems and an AP Servo Fail warning indication in Iraq on 12 December 2005 at 1228 local. The RQ-7A sustained Class B damage.
COST: 1 RQ-7A Shadow with class B damage (between $200,000 to $1 million)

➔ A 3rd Infantry Division RQ-7B was launched for a mission with the engine at idle speed. The UAV flew approximately 100 meters before crashing into a concrete security barrier in Iraq on 13 December 2005 at 2300 local. The RQ-7B was destroyed.
COST: 1 RQ-7B Shadow destroyed

PLRs
Preliminary LOSS REPORTS
for the week of 8-14 Dec 05

3

U.S. SOLDIERS DIED IN ACCIDENTS

- 1 UH-60L Blackhawk with Class C damage ($20,000 to $200,000)
- 1 UH-60A Blackhawk with Class B damage ($200,000 to $1 million)
- 1 UH-60A Blackhawk with Class A damage (excess of $1 million)
- AAFES' Facility and Inventory with Class B damage
- 1 M1A1 Abrams Tank with minor damage ($200,000 to $1 million)
- 1 RQ-7A Shadow with class B damage (between $200,000 to $1 million)
- 1 RQ-7B Shadow destroyed

own the EDGE

Composite Risk Management

